

Let's Kiss Tonight

Claudia Scott and Karen Green

Last night I came home with a smile painted on
I gave you a kiss, you replied with a yawn
I look in your eyes, you look at the floor
You know we should talk
But I don't want to bore you
Darling remember
How busy your head was
How messy the bed was
And what you said was:
"Turn out the light"

Darling remember, each moment was bliss
So why don't we kiss
Let's kiss tonight
Let's kiss tonight

You smile and you sigh
But I know what that means
There's no love in your heart
And I know how that feels
I look in your eyes, you look at the floor
You treat me so bad, but I still adore you
Darling remember
How busy your head was
How messy the bed was
And what you said was:
"Turn out the light"

Darling remember each moment was bliss
So why don't we kiss
Let's kiss tonight
Let's kiss tonight
