

Without Sound

Sometimes when all the words disappear
And music is all that I hear
Like the trickling of water through snow
Or a river that only can flow

Sometimes I just have no choice
Sometimes there's only noise
Interrupted by a voice
Or a child at play with his toys

I wonder how this can be
Melodies surface from nowhere
Catch the words I cannot see
And dare to take them somewhere

Silence is all that I fear
When no melodies come to my ear
Or reach the inside of me
Without sound, without sound
Where would I be

Without sound
Without sound
