

Before The Eyes Of God

Her eyes are deep, open wide
Looks as if she's hollow inside
Hollow from hunger, hollow from pain
No tears to wash away in the rain

She's had it all happen to her
Lost herself her child and fear
Lost her name and her country too
The sky is a shadow that once was blue

*Before the eyes of God we crucify
the innocent, hear the children cry
We see the damage but we're paralysed
What have we done can you tell me why*

*Whahoooowhahohooooo
Whahoooowhahohooooo*

We read the papers, it's on TV
Has it made us blind till we can't see
Blinded our minds and blinded our hearts
But we're too far away and we're worlds apart

*Before the eyes of God we crucify
the innocent, hear the children cry
We see the damage but we're paralysed

*Whahoooowhahohooooo
Whahoooowhahohooooo*
